You must wear a face covering on TfL services and stations

You must wear a face covering over your mouth and nose at all times when using TfL services and stations.

Without a face covering you may be denied entry to the network.

Some exemptions apply, which may not be visible or obvious. For these and further information visit tfl.gov.uk. You may see some customers wearing an exemption badge.

MAYOR OF LONDON

TRANSPORT FOR LONDON

EVERY JOURNEY MATTERS

You must wear a face covering pan modal DR poster_190721_version9_For display pan modally