NEW YEARS EVE CELEBRATIONS 2022/2023 DIVERSIONS TO BUS SERVICES IN CENTRAL LONDON

This notice gives details of diversions and curtailments to bus services on New Year's Eve 31st December 2022 and into the early morning of 1st January 2023.

Large numbers of people are expected to congregate to see the light and firework display around midnight based at the London Eye. The area around the River Thames between Waterloo and Lambeth Bridges, and in Trafalgar Square, Parliament Square will therefore be closed to all traffic. Additionally, the traditional gathering in Piccadilly Circus will also attract significant numbers of people.

ROAD CLOSURES

Vehicular access to a large part of central London will be restricted, but the Metropolitan Police will allow buses through a number of cordon points to an inner ring.

Between 2000 hours and approximately 0600 hours buses will not serve the roads within the area bounded by Oxford Street, Great Portland Street, Oxford Street, New Oxford Street, High Holborn, Farringdon Street, New Bridge Street, Blackfriars Bridge, Blackfriars Road, The Cut, Baylis Road, Kennington Road, Kennington Lane, Vauxhall Bridge Road, Victoria Street, Grosvenor Place and Park Lane.

In advance of these closures, Parliament Square, Westminster Bridge, Whitehall and Victoria Embankment will be closed to all traffic from 1400 hours. Buses will be diverted around these closures before curtailments take place at 1900 hours.

At 1400 there will be a lane drop southbound on Waterloo Bridge to enable the setup of speakers for the event, this will be prior to the commencement of the bus lane.

Taxi Road (Waterloo Station) and Belvedere Road will be closed from 1700 to enable a pre-event build to take place.

Waterloo Bridge will be closed to pedestrians from 1600 and local arrangements will be in place to allow people to travel on buses over the bridge. Waterloo Bridge also forms part of the ticketed viewing area this year and will be closed to all traffic from 1900.

Vauxhall Bridge will be closed to traffic in both directions from approximately 2330 until the crowds have cleared following the firework display approximately 0030 hours.

Some road closures will stay in place for the New Year's Day Parade. For details of the diversions and curtailments to bus services for the London Parade, to be held on Sunday 1st January 2023, please see Notice of Event EP23/000 - TBC

DEPARTURE POINTS

Once the road closures have been implemented, buses will operate from a number of cordon points on the edge of the closed area:

Elephant & Castle – for buses towards South East, South & South West London

Holborn Station – for buses towards North East and East London

Oxford Circus – for buses towards East, West and North West London

Tottenham Court Road – for buses towards North and North East London

Green Park – for buses towards West and South West London

Victoria – for buses towards South, South West and North West London

Bus drivers must exercise extreme caution when alighting and boarding their buses in the stand areas at the departure points and be aware of other bus movements operating in the area.

CURTAILMENTS AND DIVERSIONS

Surface events team has worked with the Metropolitan Police, the City of Westminster the Greater London Authority, other transport providers and many other agencies to ensure that the management of the crowds is handled safely.

All the curtailments and diversions in this document will be publicised extensively and it is therefore essential that these arrangements are followed by drivers to ensure that inconvenience to passengers is minimised.

Supervisory and garage control staff are reminded that curtailments and diversions should be implemented in line with this document. They are reminded to ensure that all curtailments (as detailed below) are in place to ensure that buses are clear of this closed area by 2000 hours (Waterloo Bridge by 1900 hours).

Any variation to these arrangements, even in an emergency, should be discussed with NMCC before any action is taken.

Saturday night schedules will operate on all 24 hour and night bus routes on New Year's Eve, a Sunday service will be operating on New Year's Day. Selected day routes will also run overnight throughout London.

Curtailments and diversions to bus routes are detailed below. Buses will return to normal line of route as and when it is safe to allow roads to be re-opened with the exception of the routes affected by the New Year's Day Parade. Re-opening arrangements will be transmitted via 'iBus'.

Drivers are reminded to follow the instructions of any London Buses Officials and Metropolitan Police Officers.

PLEASE NOTE - FREE TRAVEL WILL NO LONGER APPLY on London Buses, Docklands Light Railway, London Underground, London Overground or London Trams.
