Timothy

Can I point you in the direction of our comms manager Anita Bhogal (copied in) who has been leading on the publicity, I have had involvement with the leaflet, but Twitter and other social media comms have been co-ordinating. Anita is not in the office until Monday, so you may wish to draft something for her to have a look at on Monday.

Cheers

Karen

Hi Karen & Christopher,

I've been asked by our director's office to draft a tweet to be sent out at the end of May to signal the start of works at Feltham.

I'm sure you must have already started planning around this, in relation to publicity and the leaflet that you are producing so wondered if you had an agreed form of words that you would like us to use? If not, I can have a go at drafting something and run it past you?

Best wishes,

Timothy
