

From: TfL Employee Communications
To: Alexander James \(Head of Privacy & Data Protection\)
Subject: Weekly information - Wednesday 24 May 2017
Date: 24 May 2017 10:51:54

Web Version | Blackberry Version

Weekly information

Wednesday 24 May 2017

Maintaining our high standards of safety and security

You'll all now be aware of the shocking incident in Manchester earlier this week, and our thoughts remain with those affected. It has raised concerns about the potential for further incidents and the national security threat level has been increased to 'critical'.

read more

Privacy matters

Every day we use personal information about customers and staff to operate our business and keep London on the move.

read more

Deaf Awareness Week

Last week was Deaf Awareness Week and we're broadening our communication skills to help more of our customers.

read more

Get involved in Prudential RideLondon

Register now to ride through our Capital.

read more

World class starts here

The Victoria line ramps up to 36 trains per hour this weekend.

Nominate your safety hero

On 29 June we'll be holding our annual Surface Safety Awards ceremony.

Are you BikeSafe?

We have free places on a BikeSafe course that is open to all TfL colleagues. Take a look at

read more

read more

when the next courses are happening.

read more

Between Us

Come and enjoy an evening of Jazz at the London Transport Museum on Sunday 28 May. Have you ever wondered about the direction a musical performance might take if the audience were invited to contribute to the set list?

Between Us is a concert series devised by jazz vocalist Kate Mullins (of the acclaimed Puppini Sisters), and pianist, composer and arranger Will Bartlett. Using their extensive knowledge of jazz and popular song-book numbers as inspiration, Mullins and Bartlett will lead the audience through an evening of immersive and inclusive story telling.

Tickets: £12.00 (plus booking) <https://billetto.co.uk/e/kate-and-will-between-us-tickets-193984>

London Transport Museum, Covent Garden Piazza, WC2E 7BB. Doors open 18:30 and there will be a pay bar.

read more

Did you miss...

Building bridges

Know your legends, TfL!

Creating a more modern London Underground

The people that make our Tube so ace

Piccadilly line is a work of art

Archive | Send to a colleague | Visit our website | Contact us
Check before you travel | Travel News | Tube planned work calendar
Yammer | Bulletins | TfL News | Weekly Information

Published by TfL Employee Communications

Weekly Information is emailed directly to staff in Specialist Services on Wednesday to provide news on TfL's activities and interests. If you manage staff without access to email, please pass messages on to them and place on notice boards. Surface Transport and London Underground staff receive the TfL and modal weekly information from their own communications teams, via Headsup and Weekly bulletin update.

This email was sent to

[Redacted]

Receive in Plain Text

Click here to report this email as SPAM.