Hi [REDACTED],

Thanks again for your time yesterday – I know I didn't get to say much in the phone call as Mike is very much our subject matter expert here but I hope it was all helpful!

Regarding some of the actions we took from the meeting:

- Katharine ([REDACTED]) is the transport lead for London Councils, who represent the London Boroughs centrally. Each of the 32 Boroughs will have their own transport leads too whose contact details will likely be on their websites.
- The following boroughs have live trials of dockless bike sharing: Islington, Hackney, Ealing, Redbridge, Waltham Forest, Enfield, Southwark, Newham, Hounslow and Richmond.

If you have any further questions let me know,
Dan
