Dear All,

We have all seen videos of UBER PH drivers ignoring one way signs, smashing into traffic lights etc.... but this is so unreal, it's terrible.

This UBER driver stops on the M11 with a passenger onboard and checks his lights!!

I really thought I had seen everything, but this beats the lot!

Subject: Catch Up

Hi Helen

I just tried to ring you but couldn't get through. I would really like to have an informal coffee catch up with you if that is possible? Mostly to find out more about the Taxi Ranks EV charging point issue and also just to use the Purdah time to get updated informally on how things stand in your bit of the professional world!

If you have time can you please let [REDACTED] in my office know? We could walk down The Cut and find a coffee?

Best wishes

Val
