Nicola,

I'd be grateful if you could update the traffic flow files for Southwark as requested.

Jenni

Grateful if you could provide an updated bus extract for Southwark as previously for Southwark.

For next week.

Wishing you both a happy Friday and a great weekend.

Best
Andy Emmonds

Thanks Andy very useful .

I notice that around Nov-Dec 2021 it was above the baseline will- will be around the same +2 to 5%?

Can I have trend for inner London as below ?

Thanks for your great help.

Good to speak to you.

Here is a view of the combined direction traffic flow for the A205 Dulwich to Clapham Common section of the TLRN. It has been as high as + 2 to 5% more than baseline in January / February this year, but is currently 3% down on our pre-pandemic 2019/20 baseline

I have asked the team to provide the data updates you have requested.

The data has been processed by ourselves. We are still waiting on Tech and Data making available for us an external gateway to provide you access to our Borough share-point site.

Ashley, will be in touch when that is available.

I have asked our traffic data team to provide the ATC data you have requested.
