

London Overground AND Elizabeth Line Coins and Banknotes

London Overground / Elizabeth Line TVM's can accept the following coins and notes:

- Royal Mint - 5p coin
- Royal Mint - 10p coin
- Royal Mint - 20p coin
- Royal Mint - 25p coin
- Royal Mint - 50p coin
- Royal Mint - £1 coin
- Royal Mint - £2 coin

- Bank Of England - £5 banknote
- Bank Of England - £10 banknote
- Bank Of England - £20 banknote

- Scotland - Bank Of Scotland - £5 banknote
- Scotland - Bank Of Scotland - £10 banknote
- Scotland - Bank Of Scotland - £20 banknote

- Scotland - Clydesdale Bank - £5 banknote
- Scotland - Clydesdale Bank - £10 banknote
- Scotland - Clydesdale Bank - £20 banknote

- Scotland - Royal Bank Of Scotland - £5 banknote
- Scotland - Royal Bank Of Scotland - £10 banknote
- Scotland - Royal Bank Of Scotland - £20 banknote

- Northern Ireland - Bank Of Ireland - £5 banknote
- Northern Ireland - Bank Of Ireland - £10 banknote
- Northern Ireland - Bank Of Ireland - £20 banknote

- Northern Ireland - Danske Bank - £10 banknote
- Northern Ireland - Danske Bank - £20 banknote

- Northern Ireland - Ulster Bank - £5 banknote
- Northern Ireland - Ulster Bank - £10 banknote
- Northern Ireland - Ulster Bank - £20 banknote

Ticket offices, there is no policy, but instead London Overground / the Elizabeth Line use Bank of England/Royal Mint guidance as follows:

COINS: Per transaction (i.e. cannot pay with more than 20p worth of 1p coins):

Coins are legal tender throughout the United Kingdom for the following amount:

- £5 (Crown) - for any amount
- £2 - for any amount
- £1 - for any amount
- 50p - for any amount not exceeding £10
- 20p - for any amount not exceeding £10
- 10p - for any amount not exceeding £5
- 5p - for any amount not exceeding £5

- 2p - for any amount not exceeding 20p
- 1p - for any amount not exceeding 20p

BANKNOTES

- Bank of England - These can be accepted in ANY denomination.
- Scottish/Isle of Man / Northern Ireland banks although they state STERLING on the banknote we do reserve the right to refuse them. Customers should be advised to go to a local bank and swap them for a bank of England note. JERSEY AND GUERNSEY banknotes are not accepted anywhere even at banks.