Hiya [REDACTED]

I would just like to say that it was agreed that there would be 4 signs in total.

On the Northbound there will be two, one on both sides of the northbound carriageway and the same with the southbound!!

I confirm that this is what we had agreed and at the location that we agreed at.

Cheers

Hi [REDACTED]

I would suggest that we go for 2 in each direction, one on each side of the carriageway . If I don't have any comments to disagree with by next week we will proceed with it as the construction is due to start next week.

Thanks

Hi [REDACTED]

See the below from [REDACTED] – they Met are happy with the type of sign you sent through last week.

[REDACTED] can you just confirm that you are happy with one on each approach ( approximate location was agreed at the site meeting)?

Cheers

Hiya [REDACTED]

I am more than happy with that sign it is more noticeable than the blue and white sign!
Drivers tend to notice warning signs rather than the blue and white signs.

Cheers

Hi [REDACTED]

This sign is quite different to the one we initially were shown, which is below. [REDACTED] – what is your opinion on which is best?

Cheers

Hi All,

The contractor ( CVU) has confirmed the start date as 25 June and completion date as 26/27 July.
With regard to the camera warning sign I would suggest one on each approach ( approximate location was agreed at the site meeting) as follows( with a 40mph limit)

If you have other suggestion(s) please let me know.

Kind regards

[REDACTED]

Hi all,

See the updated location (in case anyone else needs more coffee this morning and missed it like me!)

See you Friday
