Dear Gareth, Micheal, Mike,

I am emailing you today to inform you about a change in strategy for ofo UK, and that I will be moving on from my role as General Manager of ofo UK effective from the 31st July.

This has not been an easy decision for me as I have enjoyed every moment of building ofo UK, we started 16 months ago at the first dockless bike sharing service to launch in Europe and the UK, ofo is now the UK's largest provider of dockless bike sharing. I have headed an exceptional team which worked with me to make sure that not only did we expand dockless bike sharing across the UK but also that we did it in a responsible that way and sought to work with local authorities.

The service has opened up a clean, green and cheap way to get around the city for Londoners, providing an alternative to cars and avoiding traffic jams, crowds and queues. ofo looks forward to continuing our relationship with you and your colleagues to make sure your residents receive the best possible service. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for not only putting your trust in ofo, but for also for working with me to grow our service in London.

From the 31st July, [REDACTED] will be my replacement as Head of Operations ofo UK. I am confident that [REDACTED] will do a great job in the role, he can be contacted on [REDACTED]

If you have any questions or would like to speak before my departure, please either email me or give me a ring on the below number.

It would be a pleasure to work with you again in the future should the opportunity arise.
