Hi Rhyanna,

I hope you're well. Friday 4th AM works for me.

If it still works for Micheal and Mike, could you send an invite?

I'll be inviting our European Development Director and European Director of Communications as well so if you're ok with the meeting being in Palestra it will be 3/4 people from Mobike.

Many thanks,

Hi [REDACTED]

Thanks for getting in touch – wow, hasn't the year flown.

I've caught up with Michael, and he is happy to meet in the coming weeks, he has asked that Mike joins too. You'll have to bear with us as his diary is a nightmare! How does Friday 4 May sound in the morning?

Thanks

Rhyanna

Subject: Mobike

Hi Michael,

It was great to see you yesterday and it was interesting to hear your talk.

We're approaching a year's operation in the UK and it would be great to be able to come into TfL and talk to you and basically give a summary of how things have gone and then pick up conversations about how we can help TfL - both as Mobike and as an industry.

We are working increasingly closely with our competitors to ensure that dockless bike share can thrive as an industry. You will have seen that we did a joint launch with ofo in Southwark and aligned our press releases.

Proposed agenda:

- * 1 year on update
- * Mobike's e-bike roll out in London
- * Use and sharing of our data - working with the ODI
- * Case studies of operationalisation of data
- * Feeding into mobility integrates and APIs
- * "Challenge Mobike" - tell us your pain points or opportunities and we'll look to see how we can help.

Should I come through you to arrange a meeting date? Maybe late April/May?

Cheers,
