Event Details

Route 148 amended.

There will be three separate marches taking place within Central London on Saturday 27 July.

To facilitate these, various closures and traffic holds will be implemented to facilitate each march.

Trans + Pride – Form up at Portland Place before marching to Wellington Arch via Regent Street, Piccadilly Circus, Piccadilly and Hyde Park Corner. Once the march sets off, police will facilitate with closures of Regent Street and Piccadilly. Once the march reaches Hyde Park Corner there will be a short hold to allow the group across to Wellington Arch.

Tommy Robinson – Form up at the Royal Courts of Justice before marching to Trafalgar Square via Aldwych and Strand. Roads will be closed along the route once the march sets off.

Stand Up to Racism – Form up at Russell Square before marching to Whitehall via Southampton Row, Kingsway, Aldwych, Arundel Street, Victoria Embankment and Horse Guards Avenue. There will be a closure of Whitehall/Parliament Street from 08:00 to facilitate a barrier build. Roads along the route will then be closed once the march sets off.

Roads will then be reopened as and when it is safe to do so by the police.

Buses are not to divert unless instructed by NMCC, London Buses Officials or a Metropolitan Police Officer.

Police will facilitate buses through the closures at -
