Dear All

I have attached sketches to illustrate our discussion tomorrow.

I will bring prints.

Lee, Tim and [REDACTED] thank you for your emails.

The morning of the 19th is settling in as a preferred date to meet, with the opportunity of taking the first slice of the [REDACTED] 10:00-12:00 meeting already planned at Waterloo.

The agenda is to run through the Terms of Reference set for this short study of the potential for congestion mitigation, to look at the passenger and proposals data being employed, and to discuss some early thoughts on the opportunities and the way forward. The aim is to ensure everyone is comfortable with the basis and the approach and if not, then to see if we can make adjustments so that everyone is.

I will send out some advance material during next week.

[REDACTED], could I trouble you send an invite (with location) to me and those copied into this e-mail. I understand others may join us from TfL that Tim will advise on his return next week.
