Mike/Howard,

You will have seen the press reports over the weekend in relation to the Magistrate in the ULL appeal;-

Please find attached a letter sent this morning to the LCJ, similar letters have been sent to the various ministers at the Justice Ministry.

I am sure you will share our concerns that the London appeal decision is now tainted, just as any future hearings she may have presided over would have been. It would appear to me that the best course of action now would be a joint approach (TFL/LTDA) to the High Court to get the matter resolved once and for all by way of Judicial Review?

I welcome your comments.

Best Regards
