Hi Steve

I don't have a specific update just yet on the outcome of the consultation. I'm aware we received around 9,000 responses, two thirds of these also provided comments so it is, understandably, taking some time to analyse the results.

Rest assured we are now in the process of considering the responses before a decision is made. As part of coming to any decision, we will consider the valuable service that taxis provide to a variety of customers in London, including those with mobility impairments.

Once we have more information Dan or I will be in touch with an update.

Kind regards
Helen Chapman

Hope all is well with you? Is there any update on the Tooley Street consultation? As you can appreciate its still a hot topic within the cab trade.

Best Regards
Steve
